

BIDDING GUIDELINES

Bids are placed in the comment section on Facebook of the photo of each individual artwork. Please only bid on a piece you intend to purchase should you win the artwork!

If you win, you will be contacted within a week after December 5th via Facebook messenger. If you do not respond within 48 hours we will contact the next highest bidder. If Facebook Messenger is not a reliable form of communication for you please message our page with contact information. If you are bidding over the phone, we will take your name and phone number.

If the bidder is not in the Bloomington-Normal area or not able to pick up their piece within a week of December 6th, they are solely responsible for the shipping costs of the piece.
